Sign up now for 2017 Classes!

January 31st - March 16th

Anyone Can Become a Master Gardener!

Participants receive over 40 hours of classroom instruction in the basics of botany, soil science, fruits, and vegetables, lawn care, landscape design, annuals and perennials, trees and shrubs, insects and disease, and much, much more. In return, Master Gardeners share their garden knowledge with their communities through demonstration gardens, working with kids, helping at the fair, giving gardening talks and other projects.
